

This is Central . . .

*Its halls through which we have strolled
Its classrooms in which we have studied
Its tradition in which we have grown.*

*Take this key and come with us
As we review these wonderful years
Through the keyhole of our memories.*

MISS BERTHA M. ROBINSON
Principal

TO THE GRADUATES:

I bid you not farewell
But welcome to the distinguished family of Central High Alumni.

For three years you have studied here.
For three years you have grown here.
You have made your friends here.

Now you have come to the day when you can do without us. You will now grade yourselves. You will now make your own decisions.

These decisions are new. They have never been made before. I have faith that you will make them—stand on them—and take your places in society with confidence and wisdom.

Yours is a great responsibility for at this period in history we straddle two eras as widely different as the Middle Ages and the Age of the Aeroplane. You stand at the threshold of the "Atom Age"—the Age of Miracles.

As you file past at Commencement I cannot help but think, "Someone among you may discover the cure for cancer. Someone among you may find the formula for peace in the world."

In a democracy all of you are important—each has a destiny to fulfill—a home to build, a career to create.

Toward this end I have faith that you will do well.

Toward this end I bid you

Success and God Speed.

ACTIVITIES

Affairs of State Settled By Council

FALL PRESIDENT
ELAINE BRAVERMAN

The Student Council is the student government in Central High School. It is the group through which the student body may express its will, desires, and its complaints through student representatives.

It is the duty of each Student Council representative to report to the groups the events of each meeting. A special attempt was made to see that all groups were adequately covered.

The officers of the fall term were: Elaine Braverman wielding the gavel, Gloria Manela as Elaine's assistant, Eleanor Banks writing the minutes, and Phyllis Zager holding the purse strings. During the spring term, Ronald Horwitz presided and was assisted by Jerry Uzansky. Marilyn Frankel recorded the minutes and Oscar Gieberman took care of the finances.

With the aid and guidance of Mr. Benjamin Chinitz, sponsor, the council published a weekly bulletin which listed the school's activities for the week and were distributed to the groups. Flowers were sold at both senior plays and book covers were sold at the beginning of each term. A scholarship fund was created which was made possible by the sale of bookcovers. A scholarship of $100 is to be awarded each term to some deserving student.

At the beginning of each term the Council sponsors the Freshman Orientation assemblies to explain the activities and opportunities that are open to newcomers to the school. During the course of the year, this group helped the Parents Association with the Fun Fair and held an installation of officers and members during one of the assemblies in the auditorium. The Council also continued work on its handbook, which will be current and up-to-date, and will aid the student in understanding the activities and programs at Central.

A lunchroom committee was organized to investigate the lunchroom problem and to send recommendations and possible solutions to the administration for consideration.

This group sent two representatives to the All-City Student Council and had the honor of having one of its own, Gloria Manela, elected as treasurer of the organization.

"May the Best Man Win!"

"We consider all athletes as our guests. We will accept all decisions of the officials. We do not utter abusive or irritating remarks or attempt to rattle an opposing player. We applaud opponents who make good plays or show good sportsmanship. We strive to win fair without boasting and lose without excuses. We ask that all players and fans help us live up to this code . . . and MAY THE BEST MAN WIN."

The success of the Code and the Council can be proven by the fact that this is the fastest growing club in Central. From a starting membership of nine, the Council has grown to 250 active members.

In the fall term, under the sponsorship of Coach Wilmont Sanford and President Rena Schrockeck, the club executed two student exchanges. The first one was held with Pershing High School, where the visitors were entertained with an assembly program as well as a tour of the school. The second student exchange was held with Cooley High School. Other officers for the fall term were vice-president, Ronald Hersh; secretary, Harriet Fields; and treasurer, Sybil Pudavick.

Out of these activities, new ideas for improvement of Central as well as promoting friendly relations are devised.

Central High School is a member of the Intra-Metropolitan Student Sportsmanship Council. Consequently, the Sportsmanship Council sends two representatives to the IMSSC meetings. The representatives of the fall term were Joan Rosenthal and Bill Stephens. The duty of the IMSSC representatives is to attend all IMSSC functions, the first one being the "Kick-Off" at Northeastern High School to open the football season. Central was honored by having bestowed upon one 'Lite, Bill Stephens, the presidency of the IMSSC for both the fall and spring semesters.

During the spring term, under the leadership of president Ronald Hersh, vice-president Izetta Ray, secretary Harriet Fields, and treasurer Sybil Pudavick, the Council conducted many events. Among these was Play Day, when everyone was invited to join in some athletic sport.

"Student" Wins First Prize

Where is one most likely to find mad confusion? Room 122, of course.

Where is one most likely to find odd-looking characters running around tearing their hair? Room 122, of course.

Why? The answer is quite simple. In this well-known room the school paper, "The Central Student," is edited from the first rough draft to the final copy.

There one can find the really quite sane and capable Central Student staff, striving to publish a better and more interesting school paper. It may seem like magic, when every month, the paper mysteriously appears. But to the staff who have spent many a sleepless night in preparation for the final draft, it is no magic, it's just plain "hard work."

In order to have the privilege of working on the Central Student, pupils begin to prepare themselves early. When they are in the 11B and have a sincere and enthusiastic interest in Journalism, they address a letter to their counselor requesting admittance into the Composition (3J) class. This is the first Journalism course offered at Central.

In this class they acquire a working background in preparation for the time when they will become the editors and reporters of "The Central Student."

Following Composition (3J), the students advance to Journalistic writing (2), where they finally get the opportunity to try their wings and begin writing for the school paper. Usually, at this point, the students are in the 12B and wish to gain all the experience and knowledge possible. Their work is more conscientiously done and they are therefore ready to become members of the staff.

Mad Confusion Brings Results

The editor-in-chief, as well as the various other editors, is chosen in a unique way. The past editors have a conference, and decide who the future editors of the paper will be. The students who are chosen excell in Journalism and therefore are able to give advice, encouragement, and sympathy to their reporters when the time arises.

Apparently, all this mad turmoil in room 122 pays off, for under the fall staff, the Central Student was awarded a first prize in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Contest, which is nationwide.

Editor-in-chief during the fall term was Rae Jean Blatnikoff, news editor, Rena Schrodeck, feature editor, Helen Amhowitz, news-feature editor, Elaine Braverman and Janet Levenson, and sports editors, Noel Lawson and Art Levine.

As the school year ended and the staff departed for various points of the country on their vacations, they undoubtedly remembered the good old days when their nerves were about to snap in the midst of cutting, pinning, gluing, reading, writing, and talking; when they glared at articles which refused to be written; when they stared daggers into the backs of editors who had just "killed" an article with a sweep of their pencil. These will be their memories, but they will remember the pleasant things too, such as winning coveted awards, being patted on the back by an editor with a word of encouragement, and always finding their sponsor, Mr. Birger Bakke, willing to give a helping hand.

Trials and Tribulations

What rush, what hubub, what foresight,
Was needed to edit this Centralite!
For all the activities that Central offers,
Would give good argument to potential scoffers.

The events and memories here are of interest to all,
Be they of springtime or be they of fall,
For the Centralite attempts to make us feel glad Upon recalling all the good times we've had.

Upon reading the Centralite, the student body purrs,
Thanks to Editor-in-chief Judy Sanders.
Judy was in a continual stew
To get all of Central life recorded for you.

There are activities here for every palate.
For this you can't call me a liar.
Thanks to the co-activities editors
Natalie Rosengard and Friedelle Schreier.

Three cheers for Elaine Zeidman
From all of the mothers and dads,
For she is the gal who edited
Their dear children and our dear grads.

We can all be happy and proud,
As this is a school with fight.
And the name of the girl who set it in print
Is the sports editor, Nancy White.

Circulation Manager of the 'Lite this year
Handles the finances which are so dear.
She goes by the name of Jackie Saltz
And until the job is done, she never halts.

We've photographed the Student Council
Whose government's no fool.
This group has the purpose
Of helping run the school.

Represented here are the language clubs,
Whose members are by no means dubs.
For when all is said and done,
They'll be world travelers, each and every one.

Our Unity Forum stresses brotherhood,
It does work which is both kind and good.
It's a huge club, how could it miss
When it strives to wipe out prejudice?

Want to be a teacher or nurse?
At these activities do you wish to rehearse?
Well, read the Centralite, for two of its features
Are clubs for future nurses and teachers.

Central's sportsmen and sportswomen
Are recorded here for posterity,
These kids are full of vim and vigor
And spirit that reeks with darity.

Naturally, the grads are entitled to their spot,
Their pictures in the yearbook, we haven't forgot.
So we've pictured all the grads, and have had the nerve
To give them the praise which they fully deserve.

Many Central students have a busy day
With associations such as A. Z. A.
So the Centralite has pictured these organizations
Though they've little to do with school time relations

Yes, there's lot of info in this fine book,
And loads of enjoyment wherever you look.
It's a book you may want to thumb through some day,
When youth is gone and you're old and gray.

This Centralite for '55
Was meant to be read and enjoyed
By the entire Central Crew.
That means you!

FLAGS OF GOOD FAITH FLY OVER CENTRAL

The Unity Forum is one of the most important extra curricular activities carried on at Central High School. Its purpose is "To promote co-operation and understanding between all racial and religious groups."

During its meetings, which occur every other Tuesday in the library, discussions are held and future activities are planned. Some of the past activities have included outings, skits, movies, speakers, and, in honor of Brotherhood Week, a program to which all students were invited.

All of the members are students who realize the obstacle of intolerance and are trying to overcome it and promote better feelings among all people.

At the last election, Jim Lafferty was elected president; Jo Ann Ivory, vice-president; Mitzi Rachleff, secretary; and Phyllis Ivory, treasurer.

The able sponsors of the Unity Forum are Mr. Charles Merryman and Miss Orah Hahn, who do a great deal of work in connection with religious tolerance.

Future Scientists Compare Theories

Doyle Cole, and Jackie Shapera experiment in the chem lab while Leon Cohen looks on.

The Science Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Alfred Ottewell, was created for the purpose of gaining that experience and knowledge which can be obtained through experimentation, which, in turn, supplements that which is learned from the textbook.

On the agenda for this group were trips to the Ford Plant, Great Lakes Steel Corporation, Parke Davis Drug Company, and Eloise, as well as a picnic outing at the end of the school year. During club meetings, besides attending to business matters, a great many activities and programs were held. They included demonstrations and experiments, movies, discussions, speakers, and the preparation and adoption of a new constitution.

The requirements for joining this club are one year or more of a science, and a "B" average, or a recommendation from the sponsor, Mr. Ottewell, or from a counselor.

Wielding the gavel this term was Sheldon Pringle, with Elmorris Still as vice-president, Anne Klarman recording the minutes, and Vivian Lieber collecting and allotting the money.

Row 3—F. Mathis, B. McCants, J. Ivory, I. Emmerman, A. Gray, M. Farber, S. Rapp, S. Brown, B. Falbaum.

Row 4—M. Ott, M. Gaines, H. Goodman, A. Young, A. Arfa, C. Strickland, M. Bragman, C. Jones, B. Holdengräber, M. Heckler.

The purpose of the Spanish Club is to further students' practice and enjoyment of the Spanish language, and to teach them the culture of Spanish speaking countries.

The club's program is varied. It includes games, skits, and activities. This year the Spanish Club Chorus made a recording of Spanish folk songs at WDTR, the school radio station. To add to the club's entertainment, each Christmas a pinata is made. The pinata is filled with candy and other treats, and after the hard task of breaking it, the celebration gets underway.

The officers for the past year were: Laura Sarko, president; Phyllis Ivory, vice-president; and Rona Berk, treasurer. Upon the graduation of Ida Nader in January, Nina Sprecher took over as secretary. Miss Eleanor Brakeman sponsors the club.

The Latin Club gives students a chance to meet informally, have fun, and use their knowledge of Latin outside the classroom atmosphere.

With the able aid of Mrs. Bush, an enjoyable agenda was savored by all members. First, there were terrible but harmless initiations, including a trip to the lower world. The club held joint meetings with Mumford and Mackenzie, plus trips to the Classical Museum in Ann Arbor. The Ann Arbor visit included a picnic.

At the end of each term a medal of accomplishment is awarded to seniors who have achieved all A's in eight semesters of Latin.

Officers for the fall term were: co-counsels, Richard Sternberg and Ellen Averbuch; scribo, Marilyn Weinberg; historian, Alicia Margolis; and quaestor, Sue Nathan. In the spring, Alicia Margolis and Philip Berns took over as co-counsels, Sam Dorfman became scribo, Barbara Simon was historian, and Helen Friedman was quaestor.

Music, games, fun, and culture are the general fields of activity covered by the French Club. The purpose of the club is obvious: "To carry on a varied program of French outside the regular classroom."

Heading the club in the fall were president, Marsha Lowinger; vice-president, Winifred Ledger; secretary, Mitzi Rachleff; and treasurer, Gloria Manela. As the snow cleared so did the old officers and we found Mitzi Rachleff as president, Winifred Ledger as veep, Esther Schey reading the minutes, and Ora Kutnick collecting dues. Miss Phyllis Ward sponsors the club.

On the term's list of activities was a French "What's My Line?" panel. A speaker from U. of D., Mr. Fleck, showed the club slides of Europe, which featured France. Among the other games, French hangman was tested at one meeting. Dominant on the list of activities were musical programs. The French Club has many up and coming "chanteuses."

All three clubs worked together this year to put on a complete language show. The show included French songs, the latest Latin-American dances, and authentic old Latin poetry. This language show topped off a highly successful season for the Language Clubs.

Curtains Part on "Heaven Can Wait"

Mr. Clifford E. White, director of Central's senior plays

FALL PLAY—Row 1—E. Blau, M. Fenton, M. Krekun, M. Weisling, E. Rubin, E. Blau, J. Horwood.
Row 2—N. Rosen, H. Lipsitz, A. Engel, M. Garfinkle, E. Applebaum, E. Feldman.

FALL PLAY—Row 1—M. Gaines, J. Panush, J. Grossman, E. Feldman, M. Glicken, R. Rosen, Mr. White.
Row 2—G. Tennenhouse, D. Epel, H. Epstein, M. Schneider, H. Eisenman, A. Goldstein.

Under the direction of Mr. Clifford E. White, speech and dramatics teacher, his assistant Burton Schwartz, and Stage Mother Betsy Wilson, the senior class of June, 1955 presented one of William Shakespeare's most loved comedies, "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

"Midsummer" by Will, as the cast fondly called him, is a play of plays, combining the lives of three kinds of people, mortals, immortals, and workers, into one humorous theme. The principle characters of the senior play were: Puck, David Moscow and Nehemiah Pitts; Lysander, Burton Sirlin; Demetrius, Gerald Hoshkovitz; Helena, Rochelle Klempner and Lois Feldstein; Hermia, Phyllis Kaplan and Bluma Goldberg; Bottom, Bill Swartz; Oberon, Hadar Granader; Titania, Rena Katz and Estelle Straver; Hippolata, Betsy Wilson; Theseus, David Lipschutz, and Robert Schechter, Flute.

Congratulations are due Miss Emma Mayer for the dance sequences which she helped to create, and Mr. Joseph Kertesz for his fine interpretation of Mendelssohn's orchestral accompaniment. It was the first time the orchestra had ever accompanied a senior play.

There were over one-hundred fifty people working to make this production a success, including more than twenty-five back stage committees. These committees and their chairmen strove to add just the right touches of color and realism called for in the script.

This was the first time a Shakespearian play had ever been presented at Central, and it was the hard work and preservance of all concerned that made it the great success it was.

As the house lights dimmed and the curtains parted, Centralites waited breathlessly for the class of January, 1955 to present their play.

"Heaven Can Wait," the hilarious three act comedy, was presented December 9 and 10, and was a tremendous success.

The play described the adventures of a prize-fighter, Joe Pendleton, who upon dying and losing his body, was none too anxious to go to heaven. The situation became more involved and humorous as the play progressed.

Heading the able cast was Herschel Epstein, who portrayed Joe Pendleton, the fighting hero of the play. His sweetheart Bette was portrayed by Sharon Katz and Ethel Feldman on Thursday and Friday nights respectively.

Since all good plays must have a villainess, Evelyn Luxenberg and Joanne Grossman donned the black cape and mustache and did superb jobs. Mr. Jordan, played by David Epel, had the job of heading "Heaven's" working crew. His staff members included daffy 7013, played by Harold Eisenman, and the twin angels, Elaine and Eleanor Blau, who escorted both the fortunate and unfortunate souls either to heaven or hades.

The Senior Play involved a great deal of time and effort on the part of the whole cast, the directors and the committees. The whole student body appreciates the fact that without the able guidance of the director, Mr. Clifford E. White, and student director Marilyn Glicken, the Senior Play couldn't have been the success it was.

Walking through the halls any hour of the day, one may usually hear music floating through the building. It comes from the third floor where the entire music department is situated. It may be the Central High School Orchestra practicing persistently until perfection is reached. Besides taking a large part in the Christmas and Spring Concerts, and offering selections between acts at the fall senior play, the orchestra performed a job which is unique in Central's history. Under the direction of Mr. Joseph Kertesz, it played Mendelssohn's music for "A Midsummer Night's Dream" by William Shakespeare, which was presented by the June senior class.

The band is also sponsored and directed by Mr. Kertesz. It too participated in the Christmas and Spring Concerts. It was to music supplied by the band that the seniors marched down the aisle at graduation. The band also played with the All-City Band, which is made up of high school bands throughout Detroit. Both the band and the orchestra performed in several school assemblies.

The choir, under the direction of Dr. Harry Seitz, head of the music department, has sung in school assemblies, the All-City High School Choir, and several radio presentations.

The ensemble, also directed by Dr. Seitz, is made up of members of the choir and orchestra, and is active outside school as well as in. Throughout the year it has entertained at businessmen's luncheons and Kiwanis meetings. The group also participated in the Music Assembly.

All the divisions of the music department worked together to present the two big musical events of the year, the traditional Christmas and Spring Concerts.

Journalists Saluted

The purpose of the Quill and Scroll is to raise the standard of high school journalism through fine writing efforts. In order to become a member, a student must submit to the national headquarters at Northwestern University an original piece of literature which has been printed in a school publication. In addition, the student must be in the upper third of his class and must be recommended by the journalism adviser. Students who qualify receive gold pins signifying membership in the society.

Central's Walt Whitman Chapter of the Quill and Scroll, under the sponsorship of Mr. Birger Bakke, is distinguished by the fact that it is the only international organization in the school.

Help Wanted?

Working on the Library Staff is a way of aiding the school, while enlightening oneself at the same time. Some of the useful information acquired is the classification of all books, and the use of reference books.

The staff of boys and girls receive an instruction period in Library Science before they begin working. In this brief period they learn, among other things, the location of books in the library in order to be able to find, when necessary, any book within its walls. Stamping and processing books is also part of their job.

Sponsoring the staff is Central's librarian, Miss Orah Hahn.

Helping Centralites to find the books and information they need are the members of the library staff, shown here in a quiet moment between busy class periods.

Service is the chief aim of the Technicians Club. Composed of boys and girls with knowledge of audio-visual work, the members of the club "aim to please."

They are the ones who show movies in classes. Members who excell in their service may get up to three service points toward a citizenship award.

Mr. Norbert Ciaglo, the sponsor of the club, has the task of seeing that only one class watches a movie at a given time, as well as making sure that there is a technician to show every movie.

FALL P. A. REPORTERS — Reporting the news to Centralites are Jerry Kazdan and Golda Robiner.

What's New?

"This is your P. A. reporter signing off." This familiar conclusion is heard by Centralites during A. M. and P. M. group periods whenever a weekly account of school activities is given over the public address system.

Reporting the interesting and important announcements during the fall semester were Golda Robiner and Jerry Kazdan. In the spring, Gloria Manela and Jerry Kazdan were the newscasters.

The reporters, who are members of the public speaking class, are recommended by their teacher on the basis of voice quality and scholarship, to the sponsor, Mr. Gordon Minton.

SPRING P. A. REPORTERS — Gloria Manela joins forces with Jerry Kazdan to bring the spring news to the Central students.

Band-Aid, Anyone?

The purposes of the Future Nurses Club are: to better acquaint the members with nursing as a profession, to become acquainted with the different schools of nursing, to learn about the professions associated with nursing, and to co-operate with the Inter-Council of Future Nurses Clubs.

The officers of the fall term were Carol Rosen presiding, Frances Switzky recording the minutes, Betty Vernon handling the finances, and Patricia Ullah as Committee Chairman.

The group, under the sponsorship of Miss Ella Davenport and Mr. Benjamin Chinitz, took tours of Henry Ford and Harper Hospital and, for a term project, prepared a package for a needy family which they presented at Christmas time.

The officers of the spring term were Louise Straver wielding the gavel, and Patricia Ullah, as vice-president, Faye Booker recording the minutes and Juanita Whisenton, treasurer.

During the spring term the future nurses went to an open house at the Wayne College of Nursing. Throughout the term they visited the Childrens Hospital, Womens Hospital, and the Old Folks Home.

The group also held a joint meeting with the Future Nurses Club of Mackenzie High School. In addition, the group is a member of the Inter-Council of Future Nurses Clubs. This term's project was making new toys and repairing old ones for the Childrens Hospital and for the youngsters at Northville T. B. Sanitorium.

Girls Plan Careers

"The purpose of the Future Teachers Club," stated Miss Ward, one of the sponsors of the group, "is to promote interest in teaching as a vocation and to give helpful information to those that are interested in teaching as a profession."

The officers of this club, Alicia Margolis, president; Eleanor Tractenberg, vice-president; Pauline Roth, secretary; and Phyllis Kline, treasurer; started the season off by attending a meeting of the Future Teachers at Lincoln High School in Ferndale. This joint meeting was also attended by students of Berkley and Cody High Schools.

The group's other activities of the year included a panel discussion on the question "Are We Doing an Effective Job of Teaching Today?", which was moderated by Mr. Charles Merryman, the club's other sponsor, and a subject on which Miss Robinson gave her views. The future teachers also acted as hostesses to the Future Teachers Clubs of Royal Oak, Cass, and Mumford High Schools during a panel discussion where questions were raised on any subject pertaining to the teaching field. The panel consisted of persons experienced in this field, such as the assistant principal of Mumford High School, a counselor from Cody High School, and Miss Bertha Robinson, principal of Central High School. In addition, members of this group also attended a lecture at Wayne University on "The Teacher of Tomorrow."

Coach John Van Vleck led his first Central basketball team to a successful season. The cagers ended the regular schedule with six wins and only three losses, and tied for second place on the west-side, along with Cooley and Chadsey.

The first game of the season and for the new coach was a victory over Redford. The Blazers then lost their next three games by a total of ten points. They were untouchable for the rest of the regular season as they chalked up five straight victories for the second place tie.

City-champion, Cass-Tech ruined the hopes of a Central championship when they defeated the Blazer hoopmen in the first round of the League playoffs.

The team was led throughout the season by Bill Stephens who was picked for the official All-City team and was the third highest scorer in the league with an average of 16.9 points per game.

The starting five for the greatest part of the season consisted of Stephens and Howard Cohen at the guards, Charley Brown at Center, and Larry Washington and Doyle Cole playing the forward positions.

The returning lettermen were: Stephens, Brown, Cole, Ray Hood, Fred Moore, George Reasonover, and Roosevelt Burch.

Central's reserve basketball team also had a successful season. They finished their schedule with six victories and two losses.

The Girls' Athletic Association completed another active and successful year under the sponsorship of Miss Ernestine Burton. Included on the year's agenda were the sale of senior pins, "C" pins, megaphone and football pins, Central beanies, and school shirts. The girls ushered at January and June graduations and citizenship assemblies, as well as certain athletic events where they were needed.

The two big events of the year were the Annual Letterwomen's Banquet and the Freshie Coke Party, when all girls are invited to participate in some athletic sport, in order to become better acquainted with the athletic program at Central.

The officers during the fall term were: Winnie Ledger, president; Nancy White, vice-president; Ida Nader, secretary; and Judy Panush, treasurer.

A switch occurred in the spring when Nancy White became president and Winnie Ledger took over as vice-president. Other spring officers were: Carol Bransky, secretary; and Doreen Hollander, treasurer.

"One, two, three, four, who are we for" . . . With this familiar cry, the cheer team began the sports season at the first football game, and carried through the year, keeping Centralities one-hundred per cent behind their teams. It was their job to keep both school and team spirit high, teaching cheers and leading the crowds in cries which gave fans sore throats and athletes hope when things weren't going right.

Under the leadership of Captain Margaret White, the girls cheered Central fans and athletes on through all football and basketball games, and have become an indispensable part of school athletic life.

There is more to becoming a member of the "C" Club than wearing a Blue and White sweater with a large "C" upon it. The boys who qualify for membership have put many long hours into earning their varsity letters. That is the one qualification required of all members.

Many weeks of practice to develop the required skill go into each boy's preparation for a track meet, a football game, a tennis match, or any one of the eight varsity sports in which Central students participate.

Each sport has different qualifications necessary to earn a letter, and only those athletes who excell in their particular sport earn the letters.

The "C" Club has had many activities throughout the years. This year they ushered at all football games and held a Father and Son Banquet to honor the new letter winners. They have also sold Central sweatshirts and decals for automobiles to help raise money for a set of folding bleachers for the Gym.

Coach Van Vleck served as sponsor of the "C" Club when he came to Central in the fall. Arthur Lieberman was elected President and Charlie Brown served as Secretary-Treasurer.

Once again, amidst the rustling of leaves and the sharp, stinging breeze, football made its way into the Central sports scene. And once again, the football field was swarmed with cheering, pennant waving fans as the Blazer team marched out with spirits high to compete against other prep schools.

From the start the season was marked with injuries and bad breaks. In the Mumford game, which contained all the color and fiery play possible, veteran Alan Seel broke his leg, thus ending his football career.

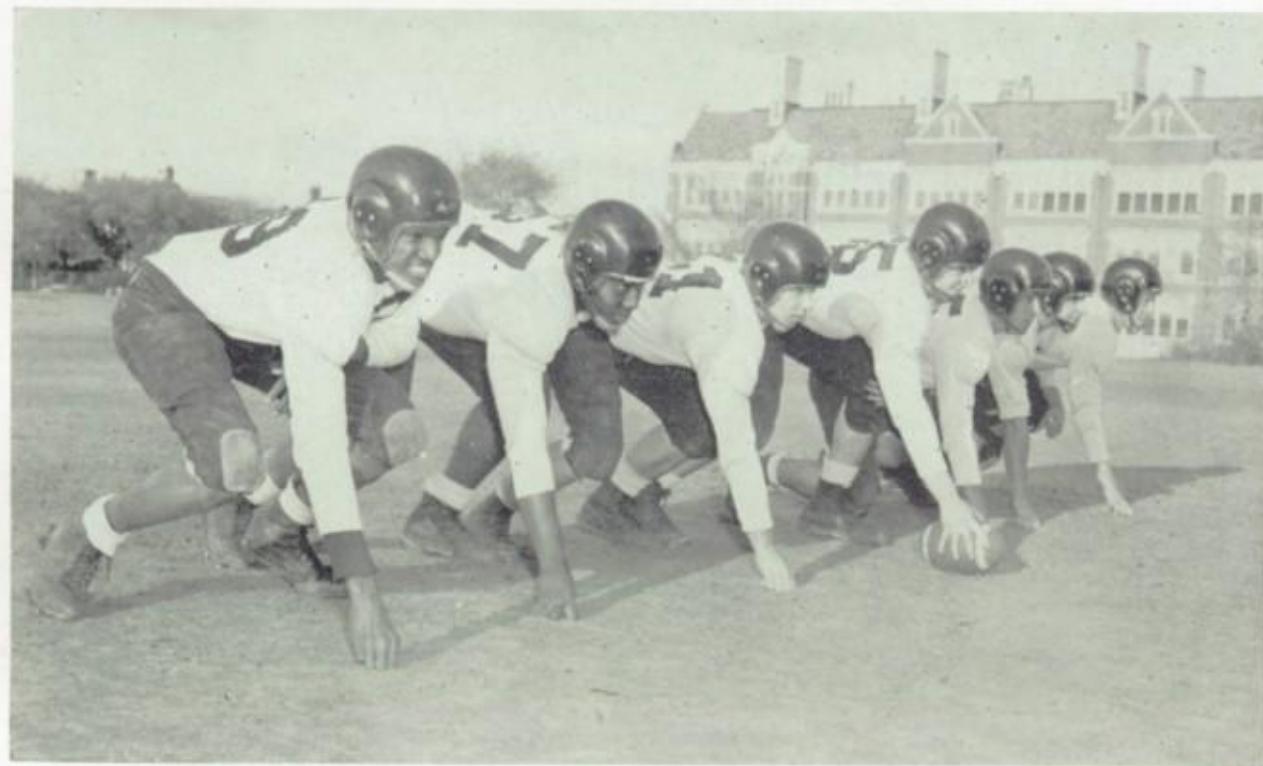

But a few rays of light managed to glimmer. Determined and stirring play in the line by Noel Lawson earned him a position on one of the mythical all-city teams selected by sportswriters and coaches. Outstanding on defense was Ray Hood, who played his last season with all his heart.

The Blazer offense, which had trouble building up power, was sparked by right half back Ronnie Little, who ran right through Northwestern and U. of D. "Touchdown" Little also exploded against Redford to lead Central to their highest scoring spree of the season.

Coach Don Fitch's difficult task of filling varsity graduates' positions will be lessened by the fine showing of some of the reserve players who battled throughout their schedule.

'Lites on the Run

Cross country, the roughest, most gruelling sport offered to prep athletes, once again experienced a large and capable turnout for varsity positions. Coach Wilmont "Doc" Sanford was especially pleased with the determination of his team.

Leading the pack of enthusiastic runners was Wilbur Wimbush, who set the grinding pace throughout the season. Wimbush's fine performances ranked him high among his teammates and competitors. The speedy legs of Wilbur Hall and Douglas Talbot added valuable strength to the squad.

Wilbert Blake, eleventh grade trackster, scored frequently for the Blazers. Blake, along with rookies Ira Jaffe and Harold Plotnick, will be around next season to help the Blazers bid for the city title.

Coming up with the same fine caliber of talent and spirit that led them to an undefeated 1954 season, Central's track team again made a determined bid to continue this west side winning streak.

Returning for his last season of competition, Bill Stephens captained the squad. Besides his leadership duties, Stephens starred in the 220, the 30 yard dash and the high jump. Desi McCurdy also tallied high scores during the season. Records tumbled as Charlie Brown broke the school mark for the 30 yard hurdles.

Enthusiasm and admiration again ran high throughout the student body as large crowds turned out to witness some of the city's finest runners.

Racqueteers

Rackets were dusted off once more as the members of Central's tennis team were out practicing early this season.

The team was made up of new members with the exception of Winifred Ledger, Friedelle Schreier, and Brenda Hart. Winnie and Friedelle were co-captains of the squad.

To play the game correctly, one must have speed in co-ordination, accuracy, and good judgment, in addition to a love of the outdoors.

The new team showed pep and enthusiasm in practice, and also in their matches. In the first game of the season, Central lost to Mackenzie by a score of 1-5. Defeated but not disheartened, they came back to beat Cody 5-1.

The new team members were: Wilma Bryant, Kay Darden, Helen Goodman, Paula Haberman, Jo Cleta Jackson, Miriam Linden, Phyllis Liptzen, Barbara Reed, Ina Sage, Linda Swartz, Shirley Thomas, Sylvia Wolfe, and Shirley Brown.

Coach Don Fitch had his hands full as Central opened the tennis season April 28. The Blazers were bidding for their seventh straight east-side crown.

Only three boys, Fred Imber, Sam Dorfman, and Captain Dave Abels were remaining from last year's championship team.

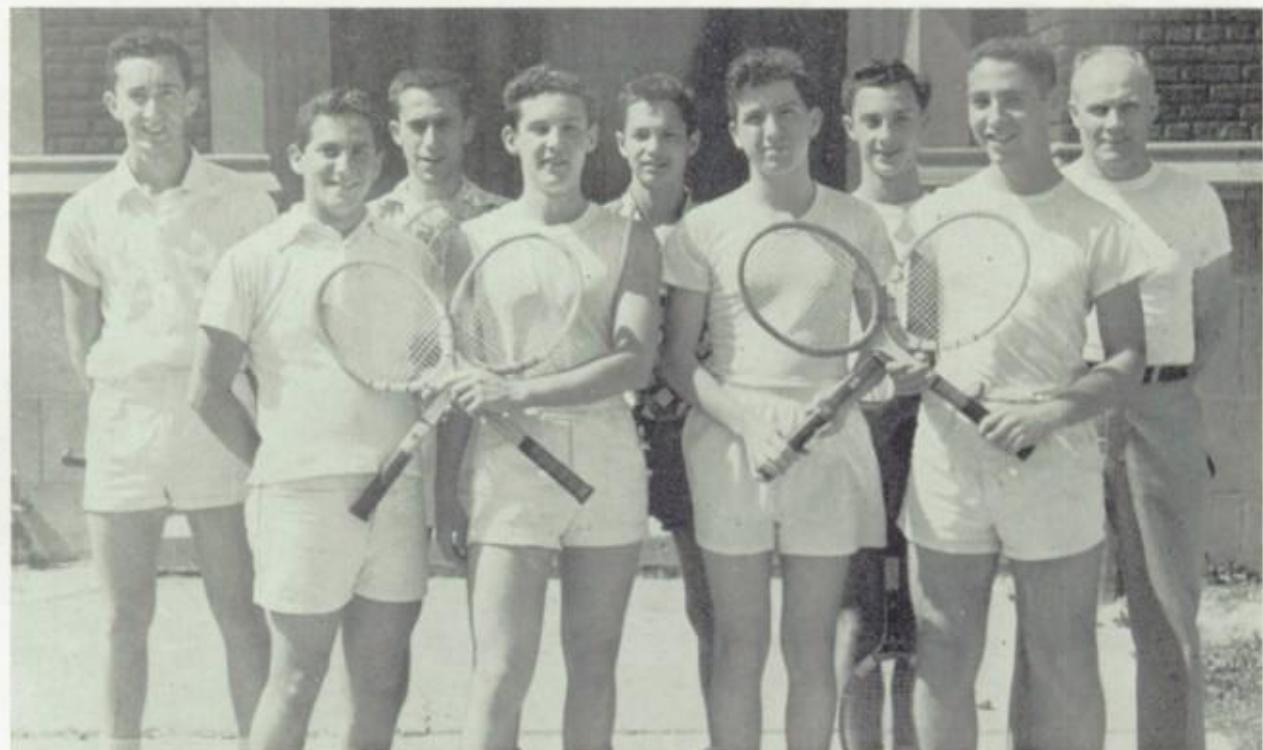

Abels and Imber were the top two men on the squad in the opinion of Mr. Fitch. They played first and second singles. Bob Shulman was the number three singles man. The remaining members of the squad, all of whom played doubles, were Sam Dorfman, Billy Levin, Eugene Loren, Dale Schane, and Jerald Maltzman.

As the season progressed, it was apparent that Coach Fitch had once again turned out a squad of some of the finest netmen in the city. Their fine spirit as well as talent made Central proud of its tennis team, a perennial east-side power.

Splash!

The Blazer swimming team, handicapped by a lack of depth and support of student body, battled harder than the record book indicated. Stiff competition, though, proved to be too much for the aquamen, who ended up with one of their poorest records.

Inexperience was the eminent factor which led to this downfall, as few lettermen were on hand to provide badly needed strength. The loss of Jerry Greenbaum, upon his graduation in January, added another blow to the team.

Returning from last season, Doug Dowler was one of the bright spots during the year. He, along with Fred Mumford and Lanson McCoy, stood out in competition to help the spirit and morale of teammates run high.

Evident was the fact that the team was composed mainly of underclassmen whose training will pay dividends in the future. With mounting enthusiasm, these sophomores and juniors are looking forward to a more promising season next year.

Because of the unexpected illness of their coach, Mrs. Clara Dierdorf, the Aquaetts found themselves working under a handicap this season. The high spirited team was forced to cancel its first two scheduled meets with Mumford and Miller. They went on, however, to play hostess to Cody, and Pershing, and finished the season traveling to Southwestern and Eastern. The girls finished the season with a total of no wins and four losses.

Outstanding as an all around swimmer this year was Gail Bennett. Gail was the team's only diver, and also swam in back stroke and free style events. Other outstanding water babes this year were Helen Freedman and Nancy White.

As usual this year's team exhibited exceptionally good sportsmanship, and fine team spirit. Leading them enthusiastically were co-captains Helen Freedman and Nancy White.

The girls are indebted to Mrs. Sylvia Albion for unselfishly devoting so much time and energy to the team during the absence of Mrs. Dierdorf.

Miss Emma Mayer, girls' basketball coach, was certainly proud of her Blazerettes this year. Under the admirable leadership of co-captains Margaret White and Hattie Butler, the girls scored five wins against one loss. Stiff competition was offered by Cooley, Chadsey, Highland Park, Redford, and Mackenzie; however, they could not stump the fast and furious Blazerettes. The squad dropped one game to Western by the narrow margin of one point.

Fine sportsmanship was again displayed throughout the year by the entire team.

With several letterwomen graduating, Miss Mayer hopes that future teams will equal the excellent record set by this year's squad. Among those graduating are Hattie Butler, Ann Thomas, and Margaret White.

Diamond Cutters

This years baseball team was one of the best fielded at Central in many years. The Blazers started off on the right foot when they snapped a fourteen game losing streak by defeating Northern, April 27.

Many new faces were seen on the diamond this year including these of Coach Van Vleck who was coaching his first baseball team here and Assistant Coach Michael Bellovich, a student at Wayne University who helped with the team.

The number one pitcher was Jim Reilly who got off to a great start by striking out eight of the first nine batters to face him. The number two hurler was Ken Lifton. They were backed up by relievers Burt Tushman, Jerry Sage, and Louis Gibbs.

The infield was strong and had plenty of depth. Fred Efros and Van Vahanian handled the chores at first base. Howard Cohen, Lucious Williams, Odell Smith and Gerald Newkirk were the boys protecting both sides of second base, and Team Captain Joel Lubin played third.

This years outfield was fast and also able to hit a long ball. Jerry Gutman, James Branch, Gerry Rakotz, and Bob Steinberg were the boys who latched onto anything the opposition was able to hit out of the infield.

The catching chores were handled mostly by Bob Brown who showed good hitting ability in addition to his catching skill. He was helped behind the plate by tenth-grader, Sid Fox.

This years squad had all of the spirit of the teams in the past, but they showed a better brand of ball playing to finish with the best record for a Central team in three years.

GAS SERVICE SINCE 1851

Gas service was first provided for Detroit users back in 1851. At that time only a few homes were lucky enough to receive the wonderful, new "illuminating gas" to replace kerosene lamps.

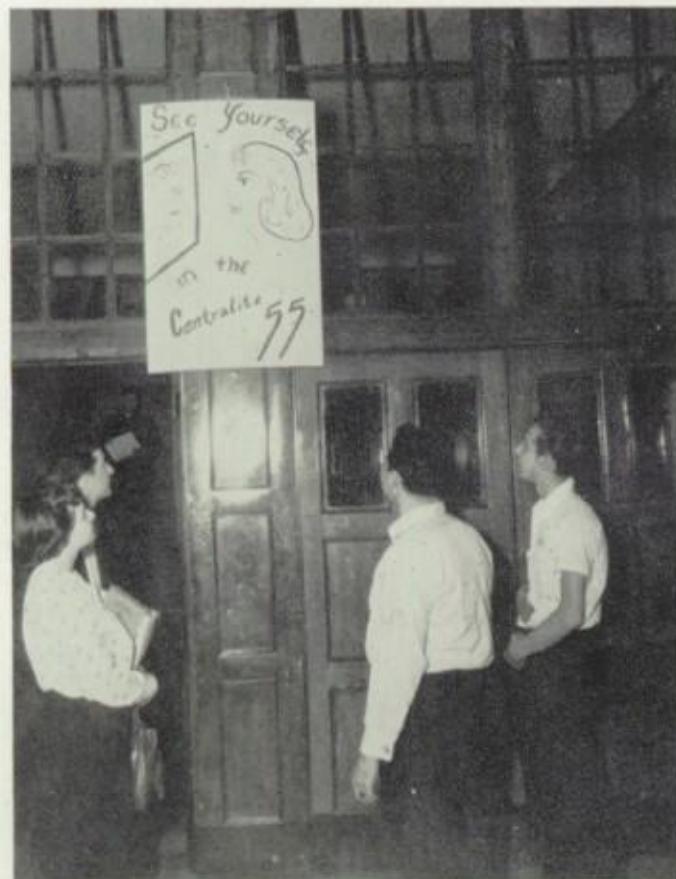

Today we are serving more than three-quarter million customers in Detroit and Michigan. And the natural gas provided is used in a great many ways . . . for cooking, water heating, refrigerating, incinerating, clothes drying, and house heating. Industry uses gas in a variety of processing operations.

We plan continually for the years ahead in order to provide an adequate supply of gas for the needs of the communities we serve.

Seniors Billy Levin, Elaine Zeidman, Gerry Rakotz, and Irving Oleinick stop to read a sign during the Centralite campaign.

A dozen turns of the wheel, three muttered curses, and final collapse result in one sewn seam.

SOME JOBS ARE WORTH CHEERING

Take the Telephone Company, for example. Anyone who works for Michigan Bell will tell you it's everything a girl could want in a job.

First, you don't need any experience. You learn your job on the job, and earn a good salary while learning. Raises are regular and frequent. Your income is steady—you can always count on it—and you get annual vacations with pay.

Another nice thing about telephone work is that you'll associate with people your own age, just out of school, too. You'll work in clean, bright, pleasant surroundings. Whether you prefer to start as a telephone operator, a teller or a clerk, you'll find opportunities for advancement.

We'd like to tell you more about these and other interesting telephone jobs. Visit us soon, won't you?

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

"A FRIENDLY PLACE TO WORK"

Something to remember . . .

Edison will help you . . .

- Plan your kitchen
- Select your lamps
- Do the laundry easier

- Plan a menu
- Plan a one-dish meal
- Preserve foods easier
- Plan party refreshments

One of these days, perhaps very soon, you'll be starting a home of your own. When that time comes, look to the trained young women in the Home Service Division at Detroit Edison. They can help you solve many of the homemaking problems that frequently puzzle a new bride.

Without charge, they will answer your questions over the telephone . . . send booklets and folders . . . or in some cases make a personal visit.

In Detroit, telephone WOODWARD 2-2100. In other areas, call your nearest Edison Office.

P.S. Mother might be interested in some of their answers right now.
